Dear [Redacted]

This is in reply to your letter of August 17, 1962, to Director Edward A. McDermott, in response to his earlier letter on the National Training Conference of Executive Reservists which will be held in Washington on October 22, 1962.

Your interest and assurance of participation in the training conference is appreciated. We will be working with you and with [Redacted] on the details.

We had a very good meeting of the Interagency Committee on the National Defense Executive Reserve here on July 31st. Most of the details were thoroughly discussed. It was thought better, however, to postpone the reports of the various agencies' plans for their own afternoon sessions of the conference until the next meeting of the committee scheduled for September 5th.

Thank you for your continuing cooperation.

Sincerely,

Robert Y. Phillips
Director
Government Readiness Office
